your write up is a good example of it.

in addition, pharmaceutical grade leucine, which is considered the key amino acid for muscle growth and protein synthesis, has been included at an unrivalled 5g per serving.

share price performance over the last month, though has been lower than that over the last year.